FHE: PREPARE FOR CONFERENCE

"We believe in the same organization that existed in the Primitive Church, namely, apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers, evangelists, and so forth."

- Articles of Faith 1:6 -

Song: Hymn #21 | Come, Listen to a Prophet's Voice

Scripture: Articles of Faith 1:6

Lesson:

Activity: Before the lesson begins, hide a treat somewhere in your home where it is unlikely to be found. When your family or group gathers, tell them you've hidden "something" and tell them to "go find it" within a set period of time. We suggest 1 minute! Do not provide any other instructions or answer questions. The goal is for the treat to remain hidden.

After the minute has passed, tell everyone you are going to give them a little more direction. Tell the group what they are looking for and where it is. Have them bring the treat back. Discuss why the first round was difficult and the second round easy.

Read: Our Heavenly Parents and Jesus Christ love us and us to find peace, strength and joy throughout our lives. They have a plan for us to find Jesus and follow His gospel so we can return home to live with them again.

Sometimes, it is hard to find Jesus. We may feel confused or lost. The world can be a scary place. That is why we have prophets.

Ask: What is a prophet? What do prophets do?

Read: Prophets act as mouthpieces for the Lord. They have power and authority to teach us about Jesus Christ. They receive revelation for the Church and teach us truth so we can feel loved, serve others, and grow as disciples of Jesus Christ. We will hear from our prophets and apostles during General Conference. It is a special time to hear the word of the Lord.

Ask: How can we prepare physically, spiritually, and emotionally for General Conference?

Activity: As time permits, show photos of the current prophets, apostles, and female auxiliary leaders. Help everyone learn their names and a fun fact or two about each.

FHE: REVIEWING CONFERENCE

"Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

- John 14:23 -

Song: Hymn #22 | We Listen to a Prophet's Voice

Scripture: John 14:23

Lesson:

Scripture: Read John 14:23 together. Before reading, ask everyone to listen for the blessings that come when we keep the words of God.

Ask: What does it mean to keep Christ's words? How does this scripture apply to General Conference?

Read: The Lord promises great blessings to those who keep His words. We have the opportunity to receive counsel from heaven every six months during General Conference. However, in the hustle and bustle of everyday life, we often forget the words of the Lord soon after Conference is over.

Ask: What are some things that hold us back from remembering the words spoke at General Conference?

Read: With faith and intention, we can show the Lord we cherish His words by not only remembering them, but applying them as best we can. When we do so, we not only improve our lives but show the Lord we are ready to receive more revelation and understanding. As we go through the next six months, we have the great opportunity to feast on what we've learned.

Ask: What are some ways we can make the words of General Conference an integral part of our lives, no matter the time of year?

Activity: Play General Conference Jeopardy! Gather simple quotes or descriptions from the last Conference. Examples could be: President Nelson announced how many temples? This speaker told the story of an airplane. This quote comes from this speaker.

Assign a point value to each question. The harder the question, the more points it should be. Let family members play separately or in groups. The goal is to see how much you remember from Conference and help remember important truths and quotes.
